2014 NACC Baseball Tournament
Conference Information

The Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference began its first season of competition in the fall of 2006, then known as the Northern Athletics Conference. The conference consists of 12 private colleges and universities from the shared-border states of Illinois and Wisconsin, all of which are NCAA Division III members.

The members of the NACC include Alverno College, Aurora University, Benedictine University, Concordia University Chicago, Concordia University Wisconsin, Dominican University, Edgewood College, Lakeland College, Marian University, MSOE, Rockford University and Wisconsin Lutheran College.

Additionally, four schools maintain associate membership in women's golf, all of which have joined during the 2011-2013 seasons. The NACC's associate members for women's golf include Bethany Lutheran College, University of Minnesota-Morris, Northland College and University of Northwestern-St. Paul.

The NACC sponsors championships in 18 sports. Men's championships include baseball, basketball, cross country, football, golf, soccer, tennis, indoor track & field and outdoor track & field. Women's championships are sponsored in basketball, cross country, golf, soccer, softball, tennis, indoor track & field, outdoor track & field and volleyball.

The league's charter members included Alverno, Aurora, Benedictine, Concordia Chicago, Concordia Wisconsin, Dominican, Edgewood, Lakeland, Maranatha Baptist Bible College, Marian, Rockford and Wisconsin Lutheran. The charter members shared traditional rivalries dating back to their predecessor conferences, the Lake Michigan Conference and the Northern Illinois-Iowa Conference.

Just two changes to the league's full membership have occurred, as MSOE joined the league in fall of 2007, and Maranatha withdrew from the league in the summer of 2013, at which time the league officially changed its name from the Northern Athletics Conference to its current Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference.

On behalf of the Concordia University Wisconsin community, we welcome you to our campus for the 2014 Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference Baseball Tournament. CUW is a proud member of the NACC and we are delighted to host this year's baseball finals at beautiful Kapco Park.

Congratulations to the coaches and student-athletes whose teams have excelled this season and advanced to the conference tournament. You have already achieved success and we wish you well in the championship quest.

Intercollegiate athletics is integral to the mission of each of the institutions affiliated with the NACC. In our brief history, the NACC colleges and universities have made great strides in fielding outstanding teams and maintaining the highest quality academic programs. Our student-athletes have distinguished themselves on the field and in the classroom. This tournament and its participants exemplifies some of the best of what the NACC is all about.

CUW is eager to be a hospitable host. Enjoy your time on our campus!

Sincerely,

Patrick T. Ferry

Patrick T. Ferry, Ph.D.
President

Dear Friends,

On behalf of the member institutions of the Northern Athletics Collegiate Conference, it is a pleasure to welcome you to the 2014 NACC Baseball Championship. This weekend, our top six teams from the final regular-season standings have earned their way to compete in a double-elimination tournament for the NACC Championship and a berth in the NCAA Division III Tournament.

We are very excited that for the second-consecutive year, that this showcase event is taking place at Kapco Park on the beautiful Concordia University Wisconsin campus overseeing the shores of Lake Michigan. The competition taking place at this prestigious site, which was opened April 1, 2012, while serving as home to both our gracious host CUW Falcons of the NACC and the Lakeshore Chinooks of the Northwoods League will once again be a treat for our student-athletes and fans alike.

Thank you for your support. We hope you enjoy the tournament that reflects the hard work, dedication, selflessness and talent of these student-athletes that has been displayed both in the classroom and on the playing field. We congratulate the teams and wish them the best.

Cordially,

G. Steven Larson, Ph.D.

2014 NACC Baseball Tournament

Kapco Park

Kapco Park is a state-of-the-art, 3.4 million dollar baseball facility that opened in April, 2012. It is intended to serve Concordia University Wisconsin, the local community and be the home of the Lakeshore Chinooks.

Kapco Park has the maximum capacity for 3,000 fans in various seating areas throughout the facility including reserved seats, fan decks, general admission and grass seating, all with beautiful views of Lake Michigan. This ballpark has a synthetic turf field, except the pitchers mound, for consistent play throughout the year. It also has a fully functioning press box, dugouts, concession area and restrooms. The park sits on the northeast corner of Concordia University Wisconsin, located on the shores of Lake Michigan.

Kapco Park is a combined effort between Concordia University Wisconsin, private companies and community-minded individuals. The lead gift came from Jim Kacmarcik, President of Kapco. The Lakeshore Chinooks and Concordia University Wisconsin feel this partnership will help develop college student-athletes on the field, as well as off the field.
